BravePoint Appoints Future Proof Software as Sales Agent
For BravePoint Software Products in Europe
*OpenEdge Software Products and Utilities for Progress Users

Norcross, Georgia – BravePoint,[®] Inc. and Future Proof Software have entered into an agreement to allow Future Proof Software to act as Sales Agent for several BravePoint software products and utilities including:

- [Pro2SQL[™]](#)
- [Pro2 – Oracle Edition[™]](#)
- [ProMonitor[™]](#)
- [ProCheck[™]](#)

Having been a well-known solutions provider in the software services sector for over 20 years, BravePoint developed certain products and utilities to help them service their customers with increased efficiency and accuracy. The result is a comprehensive suite of products and utilities that are found to be invaluable in streamlining business processes and automating routine technical tasks.

"This comes at a time when BravePoint's Sales Agent Channel is growing rapidly, especially overseas," said Greg Carscallen, Vice President of Sales for BravePoint. "We consider Future Proof Software a strategic alliance to help us further penetrate the European market."

"These products are a perfect addition to the Future Proof Software portfolio," said Peter van Dam, President of Future Proof Software. "Our clients will benefit from BravePoint's product suite by reducing time spent implementing, monitoring, maintaining, and migrating their OpenEdge technology applications."
